

DAAD Falling Walls Lab Competition:

Since its inception in 2009, the “Falling Walls Lab” competition has extended the format to a global scale and is considered to be one of the best events on new scientific discoveries where scientists, economists, Nobel laureates and professors and inventors orate about their discoveries and inventions having the potential to change the world. It’s a challenging event where participants are given a platform to pitch about their research project, or social initiative, or business model, to a distinguished jury, in a time-span of Three minutes.

The DAAD - German Academic Exchange Service and DWIH - German House for Research and Innovation New Delhi played a major role in the event. This initiative was also supported by the Federal Foreign Office, Germany.

The event at Jadavpur University:

Jadavpur University was the institutional partner of the India Chapter of the Falling Walls Lab 2018. On the 7th of April, 2018, Jadavpur University, under TEQIP-III, hosted the event. Here, participants from all around the nation joined us for the competition. Jadavpur University has been chosen one of the three hosts for the internationally acclaimed "Falling Walls Lab" next to one in Abu Dhabi and another in Vienna.

Details of the Competition:

Over 250 applications were registered by the month of February, 2018, Of them, sixteen finalists from across the country were selected through a rigorous review process, whose names are mentioned in the Annexure-I. They presented their top notch research and entrepreneurial ideas on various themes, including water problems, climate change, energy conservation, disabilities and impairments, cancer and other diseases, effective processing and production etc in three minutes in front of the judges.
